Bartender for one day

Prize: A bottle of wine of our own production for each member of the winning team and an aperitif at the end of the challenge

Location: Sala Ceccomatto

Duration of the activity: Approx. 2.5 hours

An exciting team activity for loads of fun and competitive excitement. Get ready for four different activities with varying degrees of difficulty and submit yourselves to the judgement of an attentive jury.

May the best bartender win!

Activity

- Copy: Our bartender will show how to mix four famous cocktails. The team that recreates them the best will win one point for each cocktail.
- Test: The teams will be asked questions and awarded points depending on the number of correct answers.
- Invention: Each team will have to create their own cocktail with the ingredients available. The team that creates the best cocktail will receive highest score.
- Freestyle: Each team will choose one team member that will have to repeat the freestyle. This will be followed by the final ranking.

The sum of all points will determine the final ranking and thus the winning team.

A dough of emotions

In this special cooking course, participants will learn that work life is a bit like the dough for the pizzas and focaccias that they will prepare: One must use the right flour for each client, find the perfect recipe for the individual needs, wait for the dough to rise, and season everything to taste.

At the end, the activity is followed by an aperitif based on wines of our own production and focaccia prepared during the course.
